

Hostos Community College

After-school education plays an increasingly vital role in the lives of all kids, including those who live in low income families. The Center for After-School Excellence, founded by The After-School Corporation in 2006, is dedicated to ensuring that during the critical afternoon hours, young people are supervised and instructed by well-trained staff in high-quality after-school programs.

Foundations in After-School (Spring/Summer) A Certificate Program

Hostos Community College, in collaboration with The Center for After-School Excellence at TASC, will offer a three-course, credit bearing program during the 2008-2009 academic year entitled "Foundations in After-School."

Spring 2009

▪ Foundation of Education

This course introduces students to a variety of critical contemporary and foundational issues and themes that influence modern urban education models.

▪ After-School Programs

This course introduces students to the growing field of after-school. It will provide students with an understanding of how politics, government, and society have impacted the after-school profession. Students will also become familiar with the components and resources needed to implement, manage, and evaluate after-school programs serving diverse communities.

Summer 2009

▪ Introduction to Special Education

The student will become acquainted with current theories and techniques of identification and treatment, and with methods and materials found to be effective in educating the disabled or exceptionally able child. The student will gain basic understanding in preparation for teaching the mainstreamed child and the bilingual special child.

* All classes meet on Saturdays between 9am – 3pm.

* Summer course ends the beginning of July.
